MINISTRY OF ECONOMIC AND DEFENCE COORDINATION

(Department of Supply)

New Delhi, the 14th January 1963

G.S.R. 142.—In pursuance of rule 11 of the Indian Inspection Service (Class I) Rules, 1961, the Central Government, after consultation with the Union Public Service Commission, hereby makes the following rules, namely:—

1. Short title and commencement.—These rules may be called the Indian Inspection Service (Class I—Recruitment by a competitive examination) Rules, 1963.

2. Definitions.—(1) In these rules, unless the context otherwise requires,—

(a) "Appendix" means an appendix to these rules;

(b) "Commission" means the Union Public Service Commission;

(c) "Examination" means a competitive examination for recruitment to the Service referred to in rule 11 of the Indian Inspection Service Rules, 1961;

(d) "Service" means the Indian Inspection Service (Class I), particulars in respect of which are given in Appendix IV.

(2) All other words and expressions used in these rules and not defined shall have the meaning respectively assigned to them in the Indian Inspection Service (Class I) Rules, 1961.

3. Holding of Examination.—(1) The examination shall be held in India at such times and places as may be prescribed in the notice issued by the Commission. Every such notice may specify the number of vacancies to be filled on the result of the examination.

(2) If the examination held by the Commission is a combined examination for recruitment to more than one Service or Department, the following provisions shall apply, namely:—

(a) Any person may apply to be admitted as a candidate for appointment to all or any of the Services or Departments for which he is eligible. If he wishes to compete for appointment in more than one Service or Department, he shall state in his application form which Services or Departments he wishes to compete for and the order of his preference. It shall be sufficient for him to make one payment of the fee referred to above;

(b) the Central Government shall assign successful candidates to each Service or Department after taking into account all circumstances and factors including any personal preference expressed by the candidate.

4. Conditions of eligibility.—In order to be eligible to compete at the examination, a candidate must satisfy the following conditions namely:—

(i) Nationality.—He must be—

(a) a citizen of India, or

(b) a subject of Sikkim, or

(c) a person of Indian origin who has migrated from Pakistan with the intention of permanently settling in India:

Provided that subject to the issue of a certificate of eligibility in his favour, a subject of Nepal or a Tibetan who came over to India before the 1st January, 1962 with the intention of permanently settling in India may also compete at the examination:

Provided further that a candidate belonging to category (c) must be a person in whose favour a certificate of eligibility has been given by the Central Government and such certificate of eligibility will be valid only for a period of one year from the date of his appointment if he were appointed beyond which he can be retained in service only if he has become a citizen of India.

NOTE 1.—Certificate of eligibility will not, however, be necessary in the case of a candidate belonging to any one of the following categories:—

(1) Persons who migrated to India from Pakistan before the 19th July, 1948 and have ordinarily been residing in India since then.

(2) Persons who migrated to India from Pakistan on or after the 19th July, 1948 and who have been registered as citizens of India under article 6 of the Constitution.

or.

(3) Non-citizens belonging to category (c) who have entered service under the Government of India before the 26th January, 1950 and who have continued in such service since then. Any such person who re-entered or may re-enter such service with break after the 26th January, 1950, will however require certificate of eligibility.

NOTE 2.—A candidate in whose case a certificate of eligibility is necessary may be admitted to the examination and he may also be provisionally appointed subject to the necessary certificate being granted in his favour.

(ii) Age.—On the date prescribed by the Commission in their notice of the examination issued under rule 3, a candidate must have attained the age of 20 years and must not have attained the age of 25 years:

Provided that the upper age limit may be relaxed upto 30 years in the case of candidates who are permanently employed in the Directorate General of Supplies and Disposals or who were continuously in temporary service under that Directorate General for at least 3 years or who were within the above specified age limits on the date of their employment in the Directorate General, such relaxation being limited to three examinations only.

NOTE 1.—Departmental candidates must obtain previous permission of the Head of the Department to compete for the examination.

NOTE 2.—The upper age limit may be relaxed—

(i) upto a maximum of five years if a candidate belongs to the Scheduled Castes or the Scheduled Tribes.

(ii) upto a maximum of three years if a candidate is a bona fide displaced person from Pakistan;

Provided that this concession shall not be admissible to a candidate who has already appeared at five previous examinations;

(iii) upto a maximum of eight years if a candidate belongs to the Scheduled Castes, or Scheduled Tribes and is also a bona fide displaced person from Pakistan;

Provided that this concession shall not be admissible to a candidate who has already appeared at ten previous examinations;

(iv) upto a maximum of three years, if a candidate is a resident of the Union Territory of Pondicherry and has been receiving his education through the medium of French;

(v) upto a maximum of four years if a candidate belongs to the Andaman and Nicobar Islands;

(vi) upto a maximum of three years in the case of repatriates from Ceylon who are Indian citizens.

NOTE 3.—A candidate who is admitted to the examination under the age concession mentioned in note 2 will not be eligible for appointment if after submitting the application, he resigns from service either before or after taking the examination. He will, however, continue to be eligible if he is retrenched from the service or post after submitting the application.

NOTE 4.—A candidate who, after submitting his application to his department, is transferred to other department will be eligible to compete under departmental age concession for the Service, for which he would have been eligible, but for his transfer, provided his application, duly recommended, is forwarded by the department.

(iii) Educational qualifications.—A candidate must have—

(a) obtained a degree in Engineering from a university incorporated by an Act of the Central or of a State Legislature in India; or

(b) passed Sections A and B of the Associate Membership Examination of the Institution of Engineers (India) or have any other educational qualifications, excepting the B.E. degree (Tele-communication) awarded by Indian Universities recognised by that Institution as exempting from passing these sections; or

(c) obtained an engineering degree of one of the universities mentioned in Appendix I under the conditions prescribed in that Appendix; or

(d) passed the Honours Diploma examination in Civil, Mechanical or Electrical Engineering of the Loughborough College, Leicestershire provided the candidate has passed the common preliminary examination or has been exempted therefrom.

NOTE 1.—In exceptional cases the Commission may treat a candidate, who has not any of the foregoing qualifications, as a qualified candidate, provided he has passed examinations conducted by other institutions, the standard of which in the opinion of the Commission justifies his admission to the examination.

NOTE 2.—Candidates who have appeared at an examination the passing of which would render them eligible to appear at this examination but have not been informed of the result, may apply for admission to the examination. Candidates who intend to appear at such a qualifying examination may also apply, provided that the qualifying examination is completed before the commencement of this examination. Their applications will be accepted provisionally and they will be required to furnish proof of having passed the examination as soon as possible and in any case not later than two months after the commencement of this examination.

(iv) Fees.—Candidates must pay such examination fees as the Central Government may prescribe. No claim for a refund of any of these fees will be entertained, nor can they be held in reserve for any other examination or selection.

(v) Conduct.—(1) (a) No male candidate who has more than one wife living or who having a spouse living, marries in any case in which such marriage is void by reason of its taking place during the life time of such spouse, shall be eligible for appointment to any of the Services, appointments to which are made on the results of this competitive examination unless the Government of India after being satisfied that there are special grounds for doing so exempt any male candidate from the operation of this rule.

(b) No female candidate whose marriage is void by reason of the husband having a wife living at the time of such marriage or who has married a person who has a wife living at the time of such marriage shall be eligible for appointment to any of the Services, appointments to which are made on the results of this competitive examination unless the Government of India after being satisfied that there are special grounds for doing so, exempt any female candidate from the operation of this rule.

(2) A candidate found guilty of impersonation or of submitting fabricated documents or documents which have been tampered with or of making statements which are incorrect or false or suppressing material information or of using or attempting to use unfair means in the examination hall or otherwise resorting to any other irregular or improper means for obtaining admission to the examination may in addition to rendering himself liable to a criminal prosecution be debarred either permanently or for a specified period—

(a) by the Commission from admission to any examination or appearance at any interview held by the Commission for selection of candidates:

(b) by the Central Government from employment under the Government.

(3) No recommendations except those required in the application form shall be taken into consideration. Any attempt on the part of a candidate to obtain support for his candidature by other means may disqualify him for admission.

(vi) Standards of health.—A candidate must be in good mental and bodily health and free from any physical defect likely to interfere with the efficient performance of the duties of a member of the Service, and a candidate who is found after examination by a Medical Board not to satisfy these requirements will not be appointed. Only those candidates who are likely to be considered for appointment will be physically examined.

In order to prevent disappointment candidates are advised to have themselves examined by a Government medical officer of the standing of a Civil Surgeon, before applying for admission to the examination. Particulars of the nature of the medical test to which candidates will be submitted before appointment and of the standards required can be had from the Commission.

5. Admission to the Examination.—(1) A candidate must apply to be admitted to the examination before such date, in such manner, and in such form as the Commission may prescribe.

(2) No candidate shall be admitted to the examination unless he holds a certificate of admission from the Commission.

(3) The decision of the Commission as to the eligibility or otherwise of a candidate for admission to the competitive examination shall be final.

6. Conduct of the Examination.—Examination under these rules shall be conducted by the Commission in the manner prescribed in Appendix II.

7. Procedure for appointment.—(i) Candidates who obtain such minimum qualifying marks in the written examination as may be fixed by the Commission in their discretion shall be summoned by them at their own discretion for an interview for a personality test.

After every examination, candidates will be arranged by the Commission in order of merit as disclosed by the aggregate marks finally awarded to each candidate, and in that order so many candidates upto the number of unreserved vacancies as are found by the Commission to be qualified by the examination and are considered by the Central Government or the appointing authority, as the case may be, to be suitable in all other respects, shall be appointed:

Provided that any candidate belonging to the Scheduled Castes or the Scheduled Tribes who though not qualified by the standard prescribed by the Commission for any Service, is declared by them to be suitable for appointment thereto with due regard to the maintenance of efficiency of administration, shall be entitled to be appointed to vacancies reserved for members of the Scheduled Castes or the Scheduled Tribes, as the case may be, in that Service.

(ii) Success in the examination confers no right to appointment, unless the Central Government is satisfied, after such enquiry as may be considered necessary that the candidate is suitable in all respects for appointment to the Public Service.

NOTE.—The form and manner of communication of the result of the examination to individual candidates shall be decided by the Commission in their discretion.

(iii) The selected candidates shall be appointed to Grade III of the Indian Inspection Service (Class I) (Engineering or Metallurgical Branch) on probation for 2 years. Their pay shall commence from the date of appointment under these rules and their service for increments, leave and pension shall count from the same date. In the event of more than one candidate being appointed their seniority inter se shall be determined according to their position in the competitive examination.

(iv) On the completion of the period of probation, the officers of Grade III (Engineering or Metallurgical Branch) of the Service shall, if considered fit for permanent appointment, be confirmed in their appointments, subject to availability of permanent posts.

(v) The Central Government may extend the period of probation.

(vi) If on the expiration of the period of probation referred to in sub-rule (iii) or of any extension thereof under sub-rule (v) as the case may be, the Central Government is of the opinion that an officer is not fit for permanent employment or if at any time during such period of probation or extension thereof, it is satisfied that any officer will not be fit for permanent appointment on the expiration of such period or extension, it may discharge the officer or pass such orders as it thinks fit.

(vii) No period of notice shall be required for termination of service under this rule.

(viii) If no action is taken by Government under sub-rule (iv) or sub-rule (v) or sub-rule (vi) of this rule, the period after the prescribed period of probation shall be treated as engagement from month to month terminable on either side on the expiration of one calendar month's notice in writing.

(ix) Probationers will also be required to pass a test in Hindi before confirmation.

APPENDIX I

List of University degrees which will be recognised for admission to the examination

[See Rule 4(III)]

Aberdeen.—B.Sc. Engineering (Honours or Ordinary Degree).

Cambridge.—Ordinary degree B.A. in Engineering provided the graduate has passed in the principal subjects, Engineering I, Engineering II and Engineering III.

Durham.—B.Sc. in Marine Engineering.

Glasgow.—B.Sc. in Naval Architecture (Honours or Ordinary Degree).

NOTE.—The above degrees will be accepted only if taken after three years' study and the passing of the regular examination in the several Universities. The condition as to three years' study will not, however, apply to Indians who having taken an Indian degree, which exempts them from part of the University course, shall have taken one of the above degrees in less than three years in accordance with the regulations of the University concerned.

(7) From the marks assigned to candidates in each subject such deduction will be made as the Commission may consider necessary in order to secure that no credit is allowed for merely superficial knowledge.

(8) Deductions upto 5 per cent of the maximum marks for the written subjects will be made for illegible handwriting.

(9) Credit will be given for orderly, effective and exact expression combined with due economy of words in all subjects of the examination.

APPENDIX III

Fees

[See Rule 4(iv)]

Candidates seeking admission to the examination must pay the following fees:—

(a) To the Commission:

(i) Re. 1 when asking for application form and connected documents.

This amount should be paid to the Commission by Money Order. Local candidates, however, may pay cash at the counter. The Commission will not accept payment made otherwise.

(ii) Rs. 81.50 (Rs. 19.62 in the case of candidates belonging to the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes) with the completed application form.

This amount should be paid by means of Treasury Receipt or Crossed Indian Postal Orders payable to Secretary, Union Public Service Commission. The Commission will not accept payment made otherwise.

(b) To the Medical Board:

Rs. 16 before examination by a Medical Board, if selected for appointment.

This amount should be paid in cash to the Medical Board concerned at the time of the Medical examination.

2. Once an application has been considered by the Commission and the decision communicated to the candidate, no claim from the candidate for a refund of the fee paid by him to the Commission will be entertained nor can this fee be held in reserve for any other examination or selection. If, however, a candidate is not admitted to the examination by the Commission a refund of Rs. 75 (Rs. 18.75 in the case of candidates belonging to Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes) will be made to him.

3. The Commission may at their discretion remit the prescribed fee where they are satisfied that the applicant is a bona fide displaced person from Pakistan and is not in a position to pay the prescribed fee. The fee of Re. 1, however, must be paid even by a displaced person when asking the Commission for form and this amount will be refundable to him, if on receipt of his application, his claim to be a displaced person is accepted by the Commission and his fee is remitted.
